Cabin in Da Woods Welcomes You

About Your Host and Stay

Sven is a semi retired ex chief executive who amongst other interests has a passion for hospitality and has been involved as part of his career in managing lodges and lodge development.

In addition Sven is a passionate cook and operates a dining service from the premises known as the Bombay lunch club which can also be incorporated for guests under a separate charge to the overnight rate.

Breakfast or Dinner is available, provided sufficient notice is given, normally no less than 24 hrs. Regarding food, please kindly note that the kitchen in the guest suite is not designed to cater for cooking from scratch but geared more for heating up pre-prepared meals.

House rules

Cabin in da woods is about leaving city life behind, relaxing, reading and perhaps hiking on the many known trails which can be accessed right from the lodges, front door.

Please kindly note the kitchen is not equipped, for cooking meals from scratch.

Kindly refrain from smoking anywhere in the lodge. Please use patio and ash tray provided outside.

Rooms should be vacated by 11h00 to allow staff to prepare for the next guests arrival at 14h00.

Please be courteous in terms of excessive noise as well as the playing of loud music. Your adherence to the “quite period” from 22h00 to 08h00 is much appreciated.

Alcohol and soft drinks are available from the fridge located in your suite which we operate as a honesty bar. Any items consumed will be added to your bill at the end of your stay.

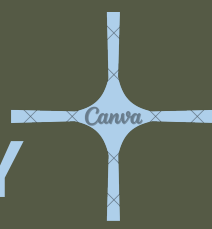

Guest vehicles may safely park in the space provided outside the main entrance to the lodge.

The gas braai located in the boma below may be used for grilling meat products at a charge of R75 per use. We accept all major credit cards.

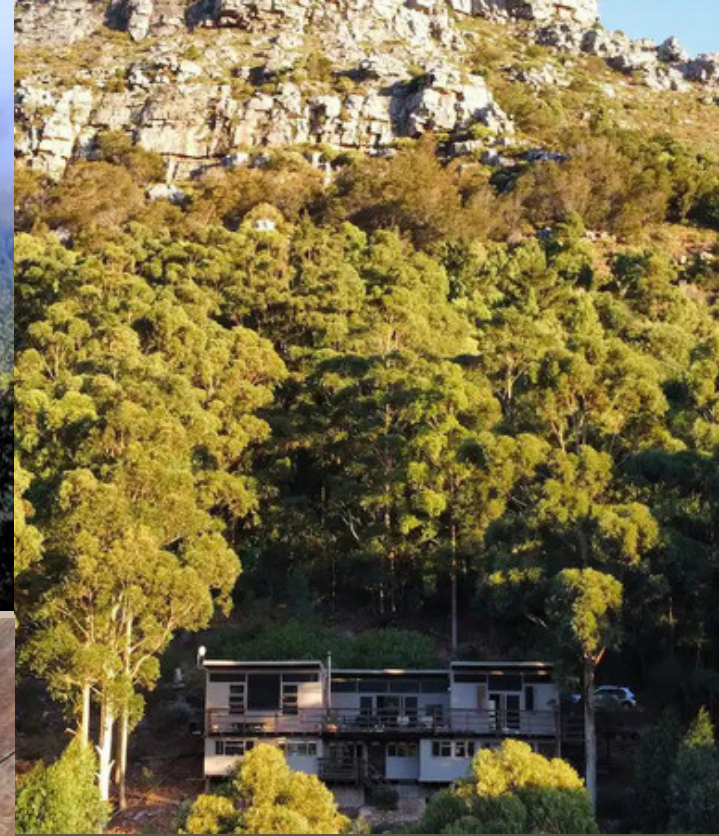

In the event of fire please find fire extinguisher canisters at the entrance to each of the rooms.

DURING YOUR STAY

Please do not hesitate to contact Sven should you encounter any problems or have any questions. Sven is on site most times and when not, a phone call away.
